

The Next Generation of Internal Audit

Name: Timothy Englehart

University: Louisiana State University

Graduation Date: May 2018

Degree/Major: B.S., Accounting, Internal Audit Minor

Why do you choose to pursue a career in internal audit?

What interests me is that internal audit is constantly changing and evolving, which will allow me to continually expand my knowledge.

How has participating in the IAEP program at your university given you an advantage in comparison to others looking for internal audit jobs?

I would have never been exposed to internal audit careers if it weren't for the IAEP program. I'm sure our program's strong presence in the industry will provide many advantages in the future.

What advice do you have for someone looking to pursue an internal audit career?

Get involved. Joining your local IIA chapter or participating in an IAEP program will give you a strong head start for a successful internal audit career.

Do you have any other degrees, certifications, or licenses? Have you passed any parts of the CIA® exam?

I've passed all three parts of the Certified Internal Auditor (CIA) exam, as well as the Certification in Risk Management Assurance (CRMA) exam.

What is your dream job? Why?

I want to work at a company where I can move up, constantly engage in new responsibilities, and continue to learn and grow.

What is your favorite quote? Why?

"You can't control the wind, but you can always adjust the sail." – a fortune cookie. Be optimistic. Every day you're here is a good day.

Who are your personal role models? Why?

My mother. She taught accounting in Hong Kong and convinced me to major in it. Throughout life, she instilled a strong work ethic in me and supported me.
