Extensive Tools and Resources to Meet Your Needs

As a top internal audit leader, you face many unique challenges — from navigating the ever-evolving risk landscape to supporting the organization as it weathers unexpected twists and turns.

The IIA is here to help you successfully anticipate all the opportunities and challenges you may encounter, while exceeding the expectations of your role, your team, and your stakeholders.

Leadership Development

NETWORK / LEARN / CERTIFY

Whether you’re a seasoned or newly appointed CAE, development is a critical part of your success. And it is imperative that you stay apprised of the issues that keep your stakeholders up at night.

- GAM™ Conference and Other World-class Events – premiere peer-to-peer networking.
- Vision University™ – immersive and exclusive executive development experience.
- Qualification in Internal Audit Leadership® (QIAL®) – demonstrating your leadership acumen.
- Volunteer Leadership – providing local, regional, and global opportunities.

Knowledge Sharing

RELEVANT / PEER TO PEER / COMPREHENSIVE

Keeping on top of best practices and learning what has worked and what hasn’t — from peers who have lived it — is essential. Below are the tools and resources to fill your knowledge toolbox:

- Audit Executive Center® – comprehensive and tailored resources, tools, and education.
- Specialty Centers – dedicated content focused on industries and roles.
- Publications – connecting you daily to insights, research, and news headlines.
- IIA Bookstore™ – comprehensive practitioner-reviewed content.
You are only as good as your team. The IIA’s professional development programs can maximize your team’s ability to excel and prepare them for the next level within your organization.

- Certified Internal Auditor® (CIA®) – the global standard for the profession.
