Take the Stage

The IIA and IIA-Nashville Chapter are excited to host the 2016 Central Regional Conference. CAEs, auditors, and audit professionals will have the opportunity to learn, share, and network with some of the industry’s most respected leaders.

Benefits of Attending

- Networking and knowledge sharing with industry peers from the central U.S. who face the same challenges.
- Cutting-edge, relevant information on issues spanning core topics such as governance and risk management, ethics and fraud, information technology, and emerging trends, as well as specialized subjects for the governmental and health care industries.
- Tools and techniques to enhance core competency and proficiency in planning and executing the audit plan and communicating with key stakeholders.
- Up to 18 CPE credits. Earn up to 4 additional CPE when you attend the pre-conference session.

Enhance the effectiveness and impact of internal audit with in-depth, comprehensive sessions with an educational program consisting of 32 concurrent sessions in four specific tracks, plus a fifth track dedicated to The IIA's CIA Learning System® Review Course.

CPE Credits Available
When you attend this conference, you are eligible for up to 18 continuing professional education (CPE) credits, depending on the number of sessions you attend. Each continuing education offering adds to your CPE credits. Attendees will be tracked via name badges for the entrance to each session. The IIA's educational programs are acceptable for fulfilling CPE requirements, which ensure that internal auditors comply with the specific standards on education in The IIA’s International Standards for the Professional Practice of Internal Auditing. The IIA is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) as a sponsor of continuing professional education to provide the National Registry of CPE Sponsors. State boards of accountancy have final authority on the acceptance of individual courses. Complaints regarding registered sponsors may be submitted to the National Registry of CPE Sponsors through its website at www.learningmarket.org.
