EHS change is coming! As an EHS auditor in today’s uncertain climate, the best way to stay ethical, adaptable, and innovative, as well as up-to-date on regulatory actions, is to attend the Environmental, Health & Safety Exchange in California, the leader in EHS and sustainability innovation.

Presented by The IIA's Environmental, Health & Safety Audit Center, this premier conference offers versatile, specialized, and relevant EHS training; networking opportunities with like-minded and action-oriented industry peers; and the ability to share knowledge and insights on the ever-changing and increasingly complex EHS issues with industry regulators.

Top 5 Benefits of Attending EHS Exchange West Coast

1. Improved performance in the leadership principles of EHS practices and EHS auditing.
2. Leading practices, data-driven insights, and trends that will position you as a seasoned professional and your organization’s competitive advantage in an increasingly globalized world.
3. Expanded EHS peer network and new connections you can turn to for sustainable ideas and strategic insights to serve you for years to come.
4. Perspectives from some of the world's leading authorities in and outside of the EHS audit field.
5. 13.8 CPD/CPE credits.

CPD/CPE Credits Available

When you attend this exchange, you are eligible for up to 13.8 continuing professional development (CPD) and/or continuing professional education (CPE) credits, depending on the number of sessions you attend. Attendance will be tracked via scanner at the door. The IIA’s educational programs are acceptable for fulfilling CPD/CPE requirements, which ensure that EHS auditors and internal auditors comply with the specific standards on education in The IIA’s International Standards for the Professional Practice of Internal Auditing.

The IIA is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) as a sponsor of continuing professional education on the National Registry of CPE Sponsors. State boards of accountancy have final authority on the acceptance of individual courses. Complaints regarding registered sponsors may be submitted to the National Registry of CPE Sponsors through its website at www.learningmarket.org.

Your CPD/CPE certificate will be emailed to you four to six weeks post-conference.

All pricing in U.S. dollars.
